DESCRIPTION:

Each year in late February to early March your annual notice of assessment arrives. It is filled with items describing such things as property classification, transfer or ownership, Principal Residence Exemption, Inflation Rate Multiplier, Equalization Factor, and March Board of Review Appeal Information. What does it all mean? This session will take the mystery out of the assessment notice and annual appeal process. Participants will learn the purpose of their local Board of Review and how it works. Participants will also learn the components of what makes for a good appeal to the Board of Review and the Michigan Tax Tribunal. Join us for this comprehensive look at the annual Michigan property tax appeal process.
