STATE OF MICHIGAN

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT FOR THE COUNTY OF CASS

IN RE:

PLAN FOR JUDICIAL AVAILABILITY

ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER 1990-3

At a session of said court held this 21st day of June, 1990 at the Courthouse, Village of Cassopolis, State of Michigan

PRESENT: Honorable Michael E. Dodge, Circuit Judge

MCR 6.104 provides that each county, the court with trial jurisdiction over felony cases must adopt and file with the state court administrator a plan for judicial availability. The plan shall:

(1) make a judicial officer available for arraignments each day of the year, or

(2) make a judicial officer available for setting bail for every person arrested for commission of a felony each day of the year conditioned upon

(a) the judicial officer being presented a proper complaint and finding probable cause pursuant to MCR 6.102(A), and

(b) the judicial officer having available information to set bail.

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, that such a plan be implemented in Cass County. A judicial officer will be available for arraignments each day of the year according to the on-call system currently employed by the 4th District Court.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, that the arresting officials shall arrange prompt transportation of any accused unable to post bond to the judicial district of the offense for arraignment not later than the next business day.
